HURLED AT CARRIAGE SUPREMELY TERRIBLE

King Alfonso and President Loubet Narrowly Escape.

SOLDIERS ARE HURT

Police Close In Upon an Individual Seen to Throw the Deadly Explosive and Several Arrests Made.

Paris, June 1.—As the king of Spain, accompanied by President Loubet, drove away from a gala performance of the opera-house after midnight, Wednesday night, an anarchist threw a bomb in the direction of the royal carriage. The projectile struck a soldier belonging to the escort on the shoulder and then fell to the ground and exploded without injuring his majesty of the president, who continued their drive to the Palais D'Orsay. Several soldiers of the escort were thrown from their horses and injured whilst fragments of the bomb struck a number of persons in the crowd.

King Alfonso and President Loubet had been cheered along the entire route to the opera by enthusiastic crowds, the young monarch having having completely gained the hearts of the Parisians since his arrival here. The gala performance comprised "Samson and Delilah" and "Mala-detta."

When King Alfonso and President Loubet entered the building surrounded by a brilliant staff and followed by nearly the entire diplomatic corps and superior officials, the house, which was composed of the elite of French society, rose and cheered, while the orchestra played the Spanish and French national anthems. The performance went without a hitch. His majesty chatted gaily with President Loubet during the intermissions, and at the close of the performance the orchestra again played the national hymns of the two countries and the king and president arose to leave. They proceeded down the grand staircase and arrived at the gaily illuminated and decorated Place Del Opera where the royal carriage awaited them. The king and President Loubet took seats side by side and the vehicle started off surrounded by several squadrons of cuirassiers toward the Avenue opera.

When the king's carriage passed at a gallop, followed by others containing the diplomatic corps and the ministers, the crowd cheered itself hoarse, shouting "Long Live the King" and "Long Live the President."

The procession arrived at the end of the Avenue Del Opera and crossed the Place Theatre Francis, where were assembled at least 1500 persons in the Rue De Rohan, a short street fronting practically a continuation of the Avenue Del Opera, right opposite the arch gateway of the Louvre, leading to the Place Carrousel. Just a few yards before reaching the Rue Rivoli, a man sprung forward with his arm raised in the air and before the cordon of police could prevent him, without uttering a word, threw a projectile in the direction of the royal carriage. The police immediately rushed toward him.

At that moment a deafening explosion occurred. Cries from the crowd were heard and a scene of intense excitement began, the crowd surging to and fro. Soldiers were seen to fall, but as the flash from the bomb died out, it was observed that the king and the president had not been struck and their carriage proceeded on its way.

The boom had been thrown with too great force and passed over the royal carriage and struck the shoulder of a cuirassier and then fell to the ground where it exploded, fragments of it striking the horses of the soldiers, causing them to bolt and throw their riders. Fragments of the bomb also struck five persons—a sergeant, two policemen, a woman, who was seriously injured, and a child who was struck in the eye.

Immediately following the explosion an individual was seen to dash into the crowd, but men seized him before he could escape and turned him over to the police. He is believed to have been the author of the outrage.

Many other arrests were effected. The first person taken was a man about twenty years of age, having an injured eye. He refuses to speak. A woman informed the police that she saw the man under a neighboring gateway talking to two men just before the explosion. He had something comical shaped in his hand. She also declares that she saw him lighting what she considers now must have been a fuse. At the time she says she did not pay much attention to him.

At 2 o'clock Thursday morning the prefect of police interrogated those arrested, who described themselves as follows: Louis Flnot, aged twenty-two, a tailor; Marcel Yauten, aged fourteen, a glass blower; Ferdinand Boder, aged twenty-one, a florist. It is not known whether they belong to the group which organized the outrage.

Miss Blanchard Selected.

New Orleans, June 1.—Miss Mollie C. Blanchard, a typical Creole girl, has been selected to sing "Dixie" at the Louisville reunion, inviting the Confederates to come to New Orleans in 1906. She is from this city and won the honor after a spirited contest among young ladies from many towns in Texas and Louisiana.

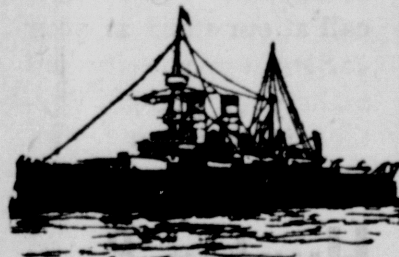

Correspondent Describes Conflict In Straits of Korea.

THRILLING ACCOUNT.

Marines of the Land of the Rising Sun Fought With Perfect Precision, Hemming In Ships of the Czar.

London, June 1.—The Tokio correspondent of the Daily Telegraph sends an interesting account of the naval battle from a correspondent with the Japanese fleet, who describes the scene as supremely terrible, the guns of nearly fifty warships firing. Togo's vessels, this correspondent says, maneuvered with perfect precision. For a time both belligerents gave shot for shot, but with a hostile squadron on each side and another ahead of him, Rojstvensky was practically defeated within a few hours and was caught in a trap which had been waiting for him since he left Madagascar. He displayed hesitation in his tactics, and this resulted in the utter confusion of the Russian fleet.

An infernal concentration of fire reached its zenith at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. As the Russians advanced in the direction of Vladivostok a Japanese squadron was lying between them and their destination and the doomed Russians were battered on all sides. Between 3 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon a cruiser of the Admiral Nakhimoff class and the repair ship Kamchatka foundered after their upper works had been shattered. The Russians broke in utter disorder, lost their formation and went zig-zag. The Japanese closed in and pressed them towards the Nagato coast.

BATTLESHIP BORDODINO.
[Sunk by Togo's guns.]

The fight lasted until 7 o'clock in the evening. The correspondent continues: "Togo risked nothing and lost nothing. Darkness brought a glorious night, with smooth and transparent seas. The Russians were edging northward, with the Japanese fleet in a horizontal line across their bows forming an effective barrier. Then under searchlights and the cover of the big guns of the warships the Japanese torpedo fleet began, like locusts to sting and sink the enemy, the Russians continuing to return the gunfire. At 2 o'clock in the morning the fighting was fierce and intense and no rest was allowed the Russians.

With the dawn of Sunday the Japanese fleet came into still closer range. All day long the battle continued, and by evening was raging off northern Nagato. The Russians were powerless to offer any effective resistance."

Togo's supplementary report makes the Russian defeat a staggering disaster unequalled in naval history. Practically every fighting ship of a once splendid fleet was either sunk or captured, representing a loss of tonnage exceeding 150,000 tons. The remaining units of the fleet, consisting largely of auxiliary cruisers and transports, have been dispersed, some going to Vladivostok, others to the China coast. Admiral Rojstvensky, gravely wounded, occupies a cot in a Japanese hospital, a prisoner of war.

Tokio is astounded and elated at the first measure of victory and seems to be unable to clearly grasp the still greater triumph that Admiral Togo brings to the nation. Before the combat a partial victory with operations around Vladivostok during the summer was generally expected. No one dreamed of annihilation at the first meeting.

Later reports indicate that the fighting was from the start of the most desperate nature. On Saturday and Sunday there were persistent torpedo attacks following heavy gun fighting. Admiral Rojstvensky appears to have been hopelessly outclassed in gunnery. It is reported that it was necessary for Admiral Rojstvensky to change his flagship five times during the battle. He finally took refuge on the torpedo-boat destroyer where he was captured.

Admiral Togo's later dispatches created the highest enthusiasm. His high officers of the army and prominent officials hurried to the navy department to offer congratulations.

The entire staff of the Bank of Japan, headed by a band, marched to the navy department and cheered in honor of the victory.

Type of a Negro Paper Scattered In the Cottonwood River.

Guthrie, June 1.—Unknown parties entered the printing office of the Guthrie Guide, the official territorial negro paper, stole the forms made up for this week's issue and dumped them in the Cottonwood river, piling the forms and scattering the type on the river bed. The editor and owner is Judge G. N. Perkins, colored, known throughout the southwest as "the Old African Lion."

ALLEN ACADEMY COMMENCEMENT.

Close of the Sixth and Most Successful Year of the School—Improvements to be Made.

The sixth annual commencement exercises of the Allen Academy were held at the opera house last night and witnessed by a large and well pleased audience. Handsome decorations contributed much to the occasion. The program could hardly have been improved upon in any particular, and evidenced careful preparation on the part of the members of the graduating class.

PROGRAM

Invocation..... Dr. J. D. West
Oration..... The Oregon Trail..... Louie A. Beard.

Essay—Back to the Soil—Miss Alma Cole
Debate—Resolved, That the Aim of the Common Schools Should be Industrial Rather than Literary Education.

Affirmative: Paul C. Boyd, Seth E. DeMaret. Negative: George A. Proctor, Robt. S. Webb, Jr.
Oration—Franklin's Materialism—J. Rea Spell, Jr.
Oration—John H. Reagan—O. Foster Brown.

At the conclusion of the program diplomas were awarded to the following graduates: Louie A. Beard, O. Foster Brown, Paul C. Boyd, Miss Alma Cole, Seth E. DeMaret, George A. Proctor, J. Rea Spell Jr., Robt. S. Webb Jr.

In the awarding of scholarships and medals the faculty of the Academy departed from the usual custom of having presentation speeches in order not to prolong the exercises too much, and merely announced the awards, presenting the certificates of scholarships and the medals to the successful contestants after the audience was dismissed. The awards were as follows:

The Dr. Paul M. Raysor medal for senior scholarship, to Louie A. Beard of Willis.

The Mrs. O. H. Astin medal for excellence in English, to Jesse Crum of Louisville, Ky.

The faculty junior scholarship medal for excellence in junior department, to Nat Allen of Bryan.

The debater's medal offered by the school, to O. Foster Brown of Hillsboro.

The A. E. Worley medal for neatness of person and room, to Emmet Rowe of Dallas.

The University of Texas scholarship to J. Rea Spell of Prairie Plains, Grimes county.

The Southwestern University (Georgetown) scholarship to Louie A. Beard of Willis.

The Washington and Lee University (Virginia) scholarship to Seth DeMaret of Bryan.

The Academy, at the close of its sixth year's work, stands pre-eminent among the training schools of the state. The work of the past year has been eminently satisfactory in the progress of the student's in their studies, the school spirit manifested and the distinction won in athletics.

The plans of Prof. Giesecke for enlarging the Academy building are in hand and it is expected the contract will be awarded and work will begin by June 15. The plans provide for three large recitation rooms, laboratory and equipment, and twelve rooms for students on the second floor.

The Academy will re-open about the middle of September.

PROPOSALS FOR WOOD.

Sealed bids will be received at the President's office of the A. & M. College until 10 o'clock, Wednesday, June 14, 1905, for 1800 cords, more or less, of good merchantable wood delivered on the College grounds subject to the approval of the President as to quality and measurement. Certified check for $250 must accompany each bid to be forfeited to the College in case the successful bidder fails to make a good and sufficient bond to carry out the contract. The right to reject any or all bids is reserved. David F. Houston, President.

INDIANS ARE COMING.

Sioux Indian Baseball Club to Play Here.

The famous Sioux Indian baseball club will appear Monday, June 5th and will cross bats with the home club, afternoon and night.

The fans will have an opportunity of seeing the home boys face the warriors on the date mentioned above, and if the weather is favorable a large crowd should turn out and root for the home team.

From the record the Indians have made during the past eight years the local club will have to resort to some of the Japanese war tactics in order to conquer the savages, for out of 1331 games played, the Indians have only lost 287, which alone should convince the followers of the sport that they put up a good exhibition of the National game.

The team travels in their own private hotel car which is provided with everything necessary for the comfort of a traveling club, including a gymnasium which is equipped with all the latest athletic devices for the team to use each morning before breakfast, and on days when the weather is not favorable for a ball game.

The Indians have secured Man-not-Afraid-of-His-Jaw to stand on the coaching line, and with Mr. Fond-of-His-Squaw behind the bat and Mr. Whips-the-Enemy in the box, it will certainly be up to the locals to play ball.

The ball grounds at Allen Academy have been secured for this occasion, they will be enclosed with a high canvas fence, and a nice covered grand stand erected, thus affording comfortable seating accommodations for several hundred. At night the grounds will be illuminated with fifty arc lights making it possible to play the game in the cool of the evening.

Mrs. G. W. Brown arrived from Hillsboro yesterday for the Allen Academy commencement and is the guest of Mrs. A. M. Rhodes.

COLORED HIGH SCHOOL EXERCISES.

The Bryan colored high school, P. Landry principal, closed last night with most creditable commencement exercises and a class of four graduates—Ada Ridley, Etta Bozeman, Lillie Castle and Daniel McMillan.

The annual concert was given Wednesday night with an excellent program of music, recitations, declamations and a one act play. A debate by pupils of the school takes place in the auditorium of the colored school building tonight.

Following is the program of last night's graduating exercises:

Piano Solo—Commencement March Treator.
Invocation..... Rev J E Smith
Chorus—"Over the Hills at Early Morn" Geibel
Salutatory—The Voice of the Past—Lillie Castle
Chorus—"Invitation to Dance"—Weigand
Argumentative Oration—Onward is the Language of Creation—Etta L Bozeman
Chorus—"Come Merry Comrades, All." Decker.
Honorary Essay—The Affections—Ada B. Ridley

Chorus—"Straight Ahead"—Vocal March Powell
Presentation of Diplomas—Prof T S Minter, Supt of City Schools
Chorus—March Onward..... Geibel
Graduates Farewell Song..... Lejeal Class
Benediction..... Rev H K Hardy

HOW GERMS ENTER THE SYSTEM.

Have No Bad Effect Upon People With Good Digestion.

Like a thief in the night, unheralded and unsought, the disease germ steals into the system under cover of the air we breathe, or our food and drink.

If this germ finds a weak stomach and digestive system, he at once sets up housekeeping, with the result that his landlord has a serious illness.

On the other hand, if the stomach where the germ finds lodgment is strong and healthy through the use of Mi-o-na, the injurious effect of the disease germ is at once neutralized, or the germ itself is driven out of the system. Keep the digestion good by strengthening the stomach and intestines with Mi-o-na, and there need be no fear of what disease germs will do.

If you suffer with headaches, indigestion, flatulency, specks before the eyes, vertigo, heart-burn, dizziness, or have a variable appetite, and a general feeling of despondency and weakness, you should at once strengthen the stomach and digestive system by the use of Mi-o-na. There is no liquid, no alcohol, no spoonful doses with this remedy. Just one small tablet out of a fifty cent box, before each meal, and your stomach will soon become so strong and healthy that you can eat anything you want without fear of distress, and will be germ proof.

Ask E. J. Jenkins to show you the guarantee under which he sells Mi-o-na. It costs nothing unless it cures.

PROPOSALS FOR MEAT.

Sealed bids will be received at the President's office of the A. & M. College of Texas until 10 o'clock Wednesday, June 14, 1905, for fresh meats for the College during the session of 1905-6; beef to be fed for the months of January, February, March, April, May and to June 10; all pork to be corn fed. Certified check for $300 must accompany each bid to be forfeited to the College by the successful bidder in case he fails to make a good and sufficient bond to carry out the contract. The right to reject any or all bids is reserved. David F. Houston, President.

Rojevsky's Injuries.

Tokio, June 1.—Serious wounds of Admiral Rojevsky, who was taken to Sasebo on a Japanese battleship, are a bruise on the forehead and a slight fracture of the skull. The nature of his internal injuries is not known. The admiral's temperature and pulse are normal and there is no sign of brain trouble. He has other wounds, but they are not serious.

Reached No Conclusion.

St. Petersburg, June 1.—The extraordinary council at Tsarskoe-Selo reached no conclusion on the subject of peace, but definite reports say the emperor agreed to meet the internal situation by the immediate proclamation of a decree providing for convocation of a national assembly.

Mrs. M. G. Kennedy of Philadelphia spoke on "Decision Day With Little Children; What to Expect From It."

Report of General Secretary Meigs was an interesting one.

A number of addresses were made. Officers were elected as follows: W. N. Wiggins, San Antonio, president; Cone Johnson, Tyler, vice president; Clifton C. Scott, Dallas, secretary; W. T. Fakes, Dallas, treasurer.

The following state executive committee was elected: R. S. Baker, W. G. Breg, J. E. Bassett, Joseph White, B. Jones, William Crowe, Hatton W. Sumners, James J. Collins, J. H. Connell, W. C. Everett of Dallas; Lucius Gouch of Palestine, F. A. Winchell of Waco, Jink Evans of Corsicana, W. A. Wilson and T. C. Rowe of Houston, A. P. Moore of Tyler, W. B. Lowe of Jacksboro, D. H. Scott of Paris; R. M. Castleman of Austin, C. C. Arnold and I. E. Adams of San Antonio, Edgar Townes of Beaumont and T. A. Searcy of Bryan.

BRAVE CONDUCTOR.

Wounded Three Times, but Captured Revolver of Robber.

San Antonio, June 1.—In a hand-to-hand fight with an armed highwayman, although wounded in three places, Conductor Sam King succeeded in preventing a holdup on a San Pedro car and now has a trophy of the conflict, the revolver of the would-be robber. The struggle which took place on the car was a desperate one and the escape of King is considered miraculous, for the bullet fired at him by the highwayman passed between the fingers and palm of the hand while he gripped the barrel of the revolver, cutting the palm, struck his trousers just below the waistband, severed a button as clean as if by a pair of scissors, passed through his underclothing and inflicted two flesh wounds in the stomach.

SHE SURELY LOVED HIM.

Woman Weds Man In Jail Charged With Swindling Her of Large Sum.

Sherman, June 1.—Accompanied by a friend, Mrs. Mary Smith of Denison called at the jail and stated it was her desire to become the wife of Charles A. Wilkerson, confined therein on charge of embezzlement of $1400 from her.

The license was produced and found to be in regular order and the groom was brought to the office where in a short ceremony Justice Hudson made them husband and wife. The bride left in a few minutes and the groom was taken back to his cell.

Attorneys generally expressed the belief that if Mrs. Wilkerson so desires she can claim the privilege of a wife to refuse to appear as a prosecuting witness.

TERRIBLE TUMBLE.

Boy First Lands on Live Electric Wires and Then on Bridge.

Laredo, June 1.—Rosendo Solis, a nine-year-old boy, who climbed to the top of the superstructure of the tramway bridge crossing the Rio Grande in this city in quest of sparrows' nests, fell and was caught by live electric wires carrying 500 volts of current, upon which he was sustained for several minutes. From the wires he fell to the floor of the bridge and remained in an unconscious condition until resuscitated by a physician. The lad's body was severely burned and blood flowed from his mouth. It is believed he will recover.

FATAL FALL.

Armstrong's Back Broken and He Died Three Hours Afterward.

McKinney, Tex., June 1.—While suspended on a cage putting on sheets of steel on the large elevator being erected by the Lone Star Mill and Elevator company at Prosper, a bolt by which the cage was suspended broke and let two workmen, Hugh Lee Armstrong and a Mr. Williams, fall to the ground, a distance of forty-five feet. Armstrong's back was broken and he died in three hours afterwards. Williams was only slightly injured.

Ten Miles Wide.

El Paso, June 1.—Farmers of the Rio Grande valley have petitioned Mayor Davis to let the dangerous flood waters into the canal, asserting that the loss to crops aggregates $5000 daily. North of El Paso the river is spreading to a maximum width of ten miles, flooding Le Meso and sending the inhabitants fleeing to the foothills.

Gold Bars Seized.

Laredo, June 1.—Customs Inspectors seized two bars of gold bullion valued at about $2600, found in a pillow box of one of the seats in a Pullman car arriving from Mexico. There is no import duty on gold, but the Mexican government imposes a strict mint and export tax, which had not been paid. The gold is now held in the Laredo customhouse pending action for recovery by the owners.

Dr. Tabor to Marry.

Austin, June 1.—A wedding of state wide interest will occur in this city, when Miss Anne Bartoq and Dr. George R. Tabor, state health officer, will be united in marriage. An extensive trip to Niagara Falls and Canada will be the bridal tour.

Sale and Lease Receipts.

Austin, May 31.—Receipts of state treasurer from sale and lease of lands to credit of various funds for May amounted to $75,639.

SOLDIERS STONED.

Conflict Between Strikers and Soldiers
Two Killed and Six Wounded.

Lodz, June 1.—A conflict between strikers and cossacks occurred here Wednesday. The soldiers were stoned by a mob of men who were trying to bring out some weavers who were at work, whereupon the troops fired, killing two men and wounding six. A condition almost approaching anarchy exists here. The strikers appear to have supreme control. They are forcing the manufacturers to close their mills and the manufacturers are urging the government to proclaim martial law. In one instance strikers forcibly ejected a military guard from a mill. A regiment of cavalry has arrived here.

No Steps Yet Taken.

Washington, June 1.—While the president has discussed informally the subject of peace negotiations with members of his cabinet and with some representatives of foreign governments at this capital and in the near future probably will take up the matter with others, it can be said authoritatively that no definite steps have yet been taken by this government.

Lost Only Three.

Tokio, June 1.—Only Japanese vessels lost in recent battle were three torpedo-boats.

DECLARED COARSE.

Rev. Dr. MacArthur Displeased With Criticisms of Rockefeller.

New York, June 1.—Recent criticisms of John D. Rockefeller growing out of his gift of $100,000 to the American board of commissioners for foreign missions are declared, in an article by Rev. Dr. Stuart MacArthur, pastor of Cavalry Baptist church of this city, published in the Examiner, a Baptist publication, to be coarse, cruel and perhaps criminal, and to have maligned entire Baptist denomination. He "protests against the condemnation of our church by these cowardly and unjust attacks." He declares that no one knows better than Mr. Rockefeller that he cannot buy the approval of Baptists by his millions; that Baptists would advocate his expulsion from the church if it were proved that he had acquired his money dishonestly or by means morally or socially destructive. He adds that he has investigated certain business transactions which had been fiercely denounced by Mr. Rockefeller's critics and has found them in accordance with the highest standards of commercial morality. Mr. Rockefeller, he asserts, is worthy of confidence, admiration and affection and appeals for "fairness of judgment for him."

Covington Arrested.

Little Rock, June 1.—State Senator A. W. Covington was arrested on a bench warrant on charge of accepting bribes in two instances and placed under $10,000 bond. It is alleged that he accepted money for his vote and influence in connection with a senate bill in which $800,000 was involved for the completion of the new state capitol.

Jockey Killed.

London, June 1.—In a race, horse of Jockey Evans fell and latter killed.

FURTHER REPORT.

Mishaps to Russian Vessels That Are Just Made Known.

Tokio, June 1.—The navy department has made the following announcement: Later reports from different divisions of the fleet engaged in the naval battle of May 27 are as follows: "Russian battleship Oslabya was heavily damaged in the early part of the fight Saturday, going down at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The first Russian vessel sunk was the battleship Sissoi Volky. Armored cruisers Admiral Nakimoff and Vladimir Monomach, after being in the engagement during the daytime, were still further damaged by torpedoes during attacks by night and eventually were completely disabled. They drifted into the vicinity of Tsu islands, where they were discovered Sunday morning, May 28, by the auxiliary cruisers Shilano, Yayta, Tainan and Sado, which were about to capture them, but they all sank. Crews of our auxiliary cruisers rescued 915 of the crews of sunken Russian ships. The battleship Navarin was torpedoed four times after sundown on Saturday, May 27, and sank. Survivors of the Navarin's crew confirm the story of her destruction. The cruisers Niyataka and Ootawa discovered the Russian cruiser at 9 o'clock Sunday morning in the vicinity of Chappyan Bay and immediately attacked and sunk her. The commander of the Niyataka reports the fact. It is suspected the Russian cruisers Almaz and Aurora were sunk by torpedoes on the night of May 27. Former reports include the statement that the Russian cruiser Jemtechug sank, but as yet this remains unconfirmed and the cruiser's name has been excluded from the revised list of Russian vessels destroyed.

"Judging from this and former reports, the enemy's main strength, consisting of eight battleships, was destroyed or captured. Three armored cruisers and three coast defense ships were destroyed or captured. With second class cruisers and other vessels destroyed, the enemy's fighting power is thus annihilated. During the night of May 27 our torpedo boats numbered 34, 35 and 69 were sunk by the enemy's fire. Comrades rescued the majority of their crews.

"Besides the above there is no damage worth reporting. No warship nor destroyer suffered any loss of fighting or navigating power.

"We anticipated a heavy loss of life, but find our casualties comparatively slight. They do not exceed 800 killed and wounded. Casualty reports will be rendered as speedily as possible in order to reassure families and friends.

"Nearly the whole strength of both combatants was in the battle and the area of the fighting was very wide.

"The first day proved foggy, and even without smoke and fumes resulting from the battle, it was impossible to locate or observe all the ships of my command. Moreover the fighting having lasted two days and the ships of my command being scattered for the purpose of following and attacking the enemy, some having received several orders after battle, it is impossible to collect and frame any detailed report covering the whole battle at the same time."

JAPS' LOSSES.

Vessels That Were Sunk Before Ill-Fated Port Arthur.

Tokio, June 1.—Necessity for secrecy no longer existing, the navy department confirms the reports of loss of the Japanese battleship Yashima off Port Arthur in May, 1904, and announces other naval losses heretofore withheld. The list is as follows:

Battleship Yashima, sunk by mine May 15, 1904, while engaged in blockading Port Arthur.

Torpedo boat destroyer Akatsuki, sunk by mine May 17, 1904, while taking part in blockade off Port Arthur.

Gunboat Oshima, sunk in collision May 17, 1904, while co-operating with army off Lia Tung peninsula.

Torpedo boat destroyer Hayato, sunk by mine Sept. 3, 1904, while taking part in blockade off Port Arthur.

Gunboat Atago, struck rock and sank Nov. 6, 1904, while taking part in blockade off Port Arthur.

Protected cruiser Takasago, sunk by mine Dec. 12, 1904, while taking part in blockade off Port Arthur.

It is understood that the emperor intends to direct that the Russian officers captured at the naval battle of the sea of Japan on May 27 be given terms of parole identical with those granted the army officers taken at the surrender of Port Arthur.

An officer of the Russian battleship Borodino brought as a prisoner to the Maizura navy yard says that while Rear Admiral Rojestvensky had raised his flag on the battleship Kniaz Savuroff, he was really on board of the Borodino during the action. When the Borodino was sinking he boarded the Russian destroyer Bedoyl, in which he was eventually captured by the Japanese.

ESTIMATES VARY.

Russian Losses Placed Between Seven Thousand and Nine Thousand.

Tokio, June 1.—Rough estimates made of Russian losses in the battle fought in the Sea of Japan, exclusive of nearly 4000 prisoners, vary from 7000 to 9000. It is feared that a majority perished. Calculating complements of sunken and captured ships at upwards of 10,000, 7000 remain unaccounted for. It is possible that the ships which escaped rescued some of the members of the crews of the less fortunate ships. Many bodies have been washed ashore on islands and shores of neighboring coasts near the scene of the battle.

Three Thousand Landed.

Nagasaki, June 1.—Fully 3000 Russian naval prisoners have been landed. Three damaged Russian vessels have drifted ashore off the coast of the province of Nagato.

Cannot Accept.

Tangier, June 1.—The sultan has definitely informed Strené Collandier, the French minister, that he is unable to accept the French proposals for reform of administration of Morocco.
